

A-positive

BUY

- A is down 30% from its September 2021 highs. In July, A rose above its steep 9-month downtrend line. The recent strength, which is considerable given the market's weakness, maintained the long-term uptrend from the March 2020 lows. Chart 2 reveals that A has established a pattern of higher lows since June=uptrend.

RRG analysis shows that A did fall into the Weakening quadrant, but has made a made a quick return to the Leading quadrant. (see the RRG below).
