

Viking Analytics: Gamma Band Update

10/30/2023

We share the Weekly Gamma Bands Update by Viking Analytics. The report uses options gamma to help you better manage risk and your equity allocations.

Gamma Bands

The S&P 500 (SPX) finished 107 points lower on the week. The price action continued to be bearish, closing lower the last three days of the week. The Gamma Band model continues the week with a 30% allocation. Our option technical signals remain bullish/favorable, while fundamental factors are bearish/neutral.

The chart below shows how price (in black) relates to the gamma flip (in blue) and the lower gamma level (in red).&#2013266080; The gamma flip level often serves as a support and resistance level.

The Gamma Band model can be viewed as a trend following model that shows the effectiveness of tracking various levels of market gamma. When the daily price closes below Gamma Flip, the model will reduce exposure to avoid price volatility and sell-off risk. There is also an allocation adjustment on the trend slope of the gamma flip line.

Market Navigator Signals

Our Market Navigator Report encapsulates data from the broader market and the economy to provide a near-term outlook for stocks. &#2013266080;Fundamentally, the market remains cautious due to credit concerns and the inverted yield curve. From a technical perspective, the market maintains all bullish signals.
