

INTC, AKAM - negative 3/11/24

SELL

- AKAM fell below its 1-year uptrend line in February. The Zoom chart reveals that the initial break happened on a gap-down day (the high and close were lower than the lows of the previous day). Also, the weekly chart shows that AKAM failed in 2024 at 2021 and 2022 resistance.

RRG analysis shows that AKAM has displayed relative weakness and poor relative momentum causing it to move out of the Leading quadrant, through the Weakening quadrant, and into the Lagging quadrant. AKAM is a bottom 20 stock in this week's TPA-RRG report. Top and Bottom 20 RRG below.
